LINGUABIZ @FLL

Our Language Training for Working Adults program is tailored for busy professionals who want to learn new languages while managing their daily responsibilities. This program offers a flexible schedule to accommodate your work-life balance by providing 2 different learning methods (face to face or online). Participants will not only improve their language proficiency but also gain a deeper understanding of cultural diversity.

This programme focuses on developing dynamic communicative skills and enhancing learners' confidence in communicating via practical real world activities. More interestingly, these sessions involve participants in lively interactions based on real-life contexts. Our sessions are friendly, fun and interactive.

Summary

FLL staff members are experienced and trained in conducting proficiency training in various languages and our language proficiency short course are our most popular course among our international student groups.

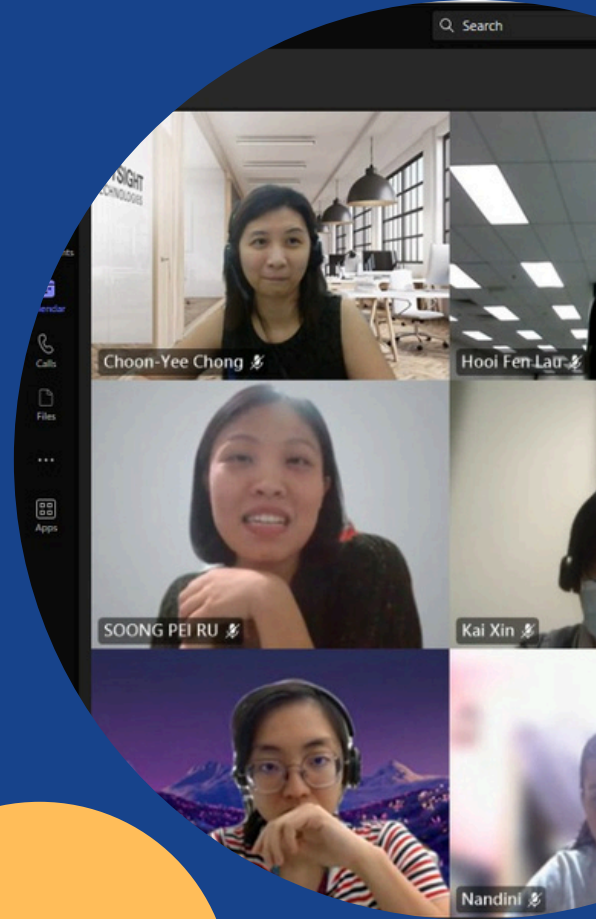

Our language programmes are engaging and interactive, so participants stay motivated while developing their language skills. We cover the four skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking, focusing on different real-world contexts depending on the participants' needs.

• EXPERT INSTRUCTORS

Our foreign language class is led by instructors who are experienced and qualified. They bring a wealth of knowledge and practical expertise to each lesson, ensuring that you receive top-quality language instruction. Our instructors use effective teaching methods and provide personalized guidance to help participants achieve their goals.

• CUSTOMIZED & HANDS-ON LEARNING

We customize the experience to match each client's individual preferences and needs, ensuring you gain the maximum benefit. Our practical learning approach includes activities that involve using the language in real-life scenarios relevant to your daily requirements, making your learning journey engaging and memorable.
